FIELD VISIT REPORT

Sheeladevi College of Education conducted field visit to Nagalwadi Village for Nail Talim Community Interaction Project for Internship II (B.Ed IInd Year) on 16/12/2023.

Students visited the Village at 2 O' Clock. Interact with Villagers over there. Students make a survey of Village and enquire about gender & social equality and students came to know that there was no such inequality and all the community regardless of caste, religion and color plays and study together. Every individual stay together and celebrate every festival with great happiness and enthusiasm.

In all, the survey was very good and students experienced new things in village. Women Empowerment and girl education was nicely promoted in the village.

Overall, the visit was enjoyed by students; it was really a great experience. Students love to explore more with such kind of amazing opportunity.
